

Grampian Child Bereavement Network Trainers

- GCBN – Trustees come from a range of backgrounds, including education, social work and health. All have considerable knowledge, experience and skills in working with and supporting bereaved children, young people and their families.
- External professionals who have expert knowledge in specific areas of bereavement support

Testimonials

“Speakers were very knowledgeable, delivered clear and precise presentation.”

“Excellent day - very informative.”

“Anne's approach to sharing her expertise has been very thought provoking and interesting. Thank you so much for this opportunity.”

“Very interesting, well run day! Thank you.”

“I have a better understanding with child bereavement since doing courses through your organisation.”

“Excellent trainer - course very beneficial and informative. So glad I attended - feel more skilled with those books. Made something 'unspoken' = out in the open and not so daunting. Thank you Admin assistant also very helpful - thank you”

Costs:

Whilst we offer free training and consultancy a donation to cover travel and expenses is appreciated.

To find out more about GCBN services or discuss your needs:

Telephone our Coordinator on 01224 554152

Our answering machine is available at all times. The telephone is staffed on a part time basis.

or email

gcbn@archie.org

or visit our website

www.gcbn.org.uk

where you can download our Training Guide and booking form.

Facebook

[www.facebook.com/
grampianchildbereavement](http://www.facebook.com/grampianchildbereavement)

"Grampian Child Bereavement Network is a dedicated resource offering a range of services to support bereaved children and young people"

Grampian Child Bereavement Network is part of the ARCHIE Foundation family of funds A charity registered in Scotland SC039521

GRAMPIAN CHILD
BEREAVEMENT
NETWORK

Supporting Bereaved Children and Young People in Grampian

Training and Consultancy Services

Our Training and Consultancy Service Grampian Child Bereavement Network aims to

- increase awareness of the needs of bereaved children and young people
- inform and build knowledge of impact of bereavement on children and young people
- increase and enable professionals and others who are supporting bereaved children and young people to respond and provide appropriate support
- provide information, enable and build capacity in professionals and others, to support children and young people to manage grief

Training

- Bereavement Awareness Sessions offered to schools, groups and professionals
- Supporting Families following Sudden Death
- Supporting Children Following Trauma
- Conferences
- Keynote Speakers
- Direct work with Children
- Keeping Memories Safe
- Targeted specific Workshops

Consultancy Services

- Provision of information and advice on resources.
- Advice to professionals on responding to and supporting children and their families.
- Direct mentoring to key workers.

- Advice and assistance to organisations on planning a response to emergencies and critical incidents
- Support to agencies, professionals, organisations and companies on responding to a critical incident